

Publisher for Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Our new and upcoming travel books

for

AGENCE
DEBORAH
DRUBA

Sep 27th 2022

The first-ever compendium on all South Korean pop culture trends

Kubek / Kim

K-UNIVERSE

From K-Pop to K-Drama: Trends made in Korea

- ★ Korea is ever-present: In the news, on TV, on social media, and on streaming platforms
- ★ All trends: From the Oscar film »Parasite« to Kimchi to the most successful band in the world: BTS
- ★ Everything you need to know: 70 topics and impressive photographs from culture, film, food, music, lifestyle, cosmetics, and much more

Abstract

No country has shaped popular culture in recent years like South Korea. With ever new trends and even more creativity, K-pop enchants the world. »K-Universe« shows in more than 70 topics, with impressive photographs, and lots of background information, what Korean culture is all about, which trends excite people at moment, and the new trends we can expect soon.

On the road with two Korea experts we try K-food, lose ourselves in K-entertainment, sing along to K-pop, and live the K-lifestyle. Always with the goal in mind to represent the complete diversity of the K-Universe.

Coming soon
Upcoming top release in November 2022

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Dennis Kubek and Bielle Kim

During his Media Design Studies, Dennis Kubek's fascination for East Asian films developed into such a strong wanderlust that he has since immersed himself in the fascinating cultures of Asia whenever he can.

Bielle Kim was born and raised in Seoul. After studying Interior Design, she has been working as a designer and Marketing specialist in Germany since 2011.

Premium paperback with cover flaps • 288 pages • 17 x 24 cm
With more than 150 pictures • 19,95 €
RD 11/22 • ISBN 978-3-95889-445-7

Illustrated travel inspiration book filled with wanderlust and love for movies

Andrea David

Discover the World Scene by Scene

On tour with Germany's most famous film tourist

- ★ From »Dirty Dancing« to »The Walking Dead«: Exciting film locations and interesting movie and travel knowledge
- ★ The author has over 850,000 Instagram followers and a large media presence
- ★ The perfect gift for world explorers and movie lovers

Abstract

Germany's most well-known film tourist Andrea David has been traveling to famous film locations for 18 years. In »Discover the World Scene by Scene«, she shares her extraordinary traveling experiences and gives unusual photographic insights behind the scenes of her fascinating project. Her unique trick is as simple as it is genius: She inserts pictures of iconic film scenes into the exact scenery of the shooting location.

Her illustrated travel book offers inspiration as well as useful information so readers can discover the film locations themselves. Because one thing is clear: Movies and TV shows create new places of longing time and again – be it the coastal town where Hitchcock let »The Birds« scream or the forest that became Winterfell in »Game of Thrones«.

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Coming soon
Upcoming release
in October 2022

Cover image only licensed for use in German-speaking markets

Premium paperback with cover flaps • 256 pages • 17 x 24 cm
With more than 150 pictures • 19,95 €
RD 10/22 • ISBN 978-3-95889-435-8

Andrea David

Andrea David is Germany's most well-known film tourist. Her passion for movies and traveling has taken her to hundreds of film and TV show locations around the world. On her blog and on Instagram, more than 850,000 people all the world follow her journey. Most of all, she is famous for her unique photo project, in which she merges photographs of well-known film scenes with the actual film location.

Discover Europe with the 25 most fascinating routes

Wengert / Dauscher

Nachtzug Reisen

The most beautiful routes in Europe

- ★ Extraordinary: The first illustrated guide for the most important European night train routes
- ★ Trending topics: Sustainable and slow travel
- ★ Top title of Spring 2022: Lots of media requests ahead of publication

Abstract

In many European countries, night trains have been slumbering for a long time. But now they are celebrating a comeback! In times of slow travel and sustainability, this unique way of travel is experiencing a real boom: the network of night trains is growing steadily and new connections are being added every year.

Exciting cities, dreamy landscapes, and lesser-known favorite places can not only be discovered at a slower pace, but also in an environmentally friendly way – without lugging suitcases across transfer stations, enduring endless traffic jams on the highway or tolerating a bad green conscience on an airplane.

Hardcover ■ 224 ■ 21 x 26,5 cm
Fully colored with numerous pictures and illustrations ■ 24,95 €
RD 5/22 ■ ISBN 978-3-95889-416-7

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Veronika Wengert and Jörg Dauscher

Veronika Wengert has spent several years in Russia, Croatia, Slovenia, and Bulgaria as a travel book author, journalist, and translator. Whenever possible, she travels to her favorite regions – preferably by night train.

Jörg Martin Dauscher was born in Bavaria and went to university in Berlin. Rather unintentionally, he became a wine merchant and has worked in the gastronomy sector. He has been traveling through Europe since 2016 and works as an author and journalist.

Our most successful recent travelogue

Nick Martin

The Coolest Resume Gap

6 years traveling the world

- ★ Commercial success: 40,000 copies sold (Paperback and National Geographic Paperback)
- ★ Public's favorite author: 35,000 followers on social media and SPIEGEL bestseller author
- ★ Amazon top performer: 680+ reviews with Ø 4,6 *

Abstract

Nick's office job is sucking the life out of him. After a winter vacation in New Zealand, he decides it's time for a change: He walks away from his job and everything he knows to travel the world. One year becomes six, and the young man from the country becomes someone new, one of the most well-known digital nomads of Germany.

He learns more about life on his travels through over 70 countries than he ever would have in any career. He gets arrested, shot at and robbed; he sails through a hurricane in the Pacific, works as a travel journalist for a prestigious airline, tries his hand at being a smuggler and earns a few dollars as a stripper in Las Vegas.

Premium paperback with cover flaps • 288 pages • 17 x 24 cm
More than 250 pictures, fully colored • 19,95 €
RD 9/19 • ISBN 978-3-95889-249-1

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Nick Martin

Nicolas "Nick" Martin (* 1986) began his world travels in 2010 with a one-way ticket to Mexico. Ever since, he has called the world his home, has traveled to over 80 countries, and has lived in seven of them. As a motivational speaker, bestselling author, and founder of the 'Travel University', Nick has made it his mission to help others achieve their (travel) dreams. On stage, he has inspired over 25,000 people with his Europe-wide live show.

Robinson Crusoe 2.0: The visually powerful stories of a modern nomad

Claudio Sieber

Stranded in Paradise

How I traveled through Asia as a nomad for six years and found my home on a tropical island

- ★ By foot, motorcycle, wooden ship or tiny horse: The wildest adventures of a six-year journey through Asia
- ★ Fascinating insights into the colorful cultures of Asia and impressive encounters with extraordinary people
- ★ With more than 200 photographs by the renowned travel journalist

Abstract

Everyday life, career, friends, family, insurances, and the prepaid sock subscription – the Swiss Claudio Sieber leaves all of this behind when he embarks on his new journey as a vagabond. For more than six years he has been drifting through Asia and Oceania as an adventurer and journalist. His journey has led him to Siargao, his personal paradise.

Having arrived in his self-made wooden hut, he looks back onto his travels, which he has sometimes made on foot, sometimes by motorbike, and other times on a tiny horse. Honestly and thoughtfully, he recounts how he has not merely ticked off the countries, but instead has savored them – and why it is worth it to take side roads on the way to your destination.

Coming soon
Upcoming release
in October 2022

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Claudio Sieber

Seven years ago, 40-year old Claudio Sieber swapped his almost-perfect home for a world far removed from fairytales. Now, he looks back on travel routes far off the »Banana Pancake Trail« and recounts wild adventures and authentic encounters with peoples he used to only dream about. At the end of his journey, he has ended up on the island of Siargao in the Philippines, where he works as a documentary director and photo journalist for arte, GEO, DER SPIEGEL, Deutsche Welle, and others.

Premium paperback with cover flaps • 320 pages • 17 x 21 cm
With more than 200 pictures • 19,95 €
RD 10/22 • ISBN 978-3-95889-433-4

The adventures of the most well-known white water kayak athlete

Olaf Obsommer

Sick Life Line

My adventures with a kayak and a camera on the white waters of the world – a life as an extreme athlete and filmmaker

- ★ Spectacular photographs and private insights into an extraordinary way of life
- ★ With impressive pictures and adventure stories from Pakistan to Malawi
- ★ Large media presence and successful speaker with ongoing tour in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland

Abstract

For 30 years, Olaf Obsommer has called the white waters of the world his home. In »Sick Life Line«, he reports on his life journey as an extreme athlete and accomplished filmmaker.

He takes the readers with him onto canoe expeditions to the most remote corners of the earth, and he impressively recounts the physical and mental challenges he has had to master while on the thundering Indus river or while trying to avoid becoming an icicle in the freezing white waters of Iceland.

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Olaf Obsommer

Olaf Obsommer (*1970) has been an extreme athlete for 30 years and has explored the white waters of the world with his kayak and his camera. In addition to spectacular shots, he is always searching for new challenges – both athletically and personally. His reports on his worldwide white water adventures have received several film prizes and media awards.

Premium paperback with cover flaps • 288 pages • 17 x 24 cm
With more than 200 pictures • 19,95 €
RD 9/22 • ISBN 978-3-95889-434-1

The author Olaf Obsommer in action

Humorous illustrated travel guide

Cornelia Lohs

Travel Guide of Records

100 paramount places in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland

- ★ 100 record-breaking travel destinations in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland
- ★ Humorous, informative texts and powerful photographs
- ★ Great as a travel guide or for browsing at home / on the couch

Abstract

Highest, largest, leanest, windiest, loneliest: there are more than enough superlatives when it comes to traveling. Anyone who now thinks of distant countries and the Seven Wonders of the World will be taught otherwise in the »Travel Guide of Records«. In Austria, Germany, and Switzerland there are plenty of destinations that no competitor can come close to anytime soon. Have you heard of the narrowest timbered house or the largest cheese mite monument? Or of the largest fish ladder, the highest Easter bonfire or the steepest railway line?

Accompany Cornelia Lohs through the German-speaking countries to places that you might otherwise have missed on your travels: to Reutlingen, Hallig Gröde, and Würchwitz, to Heede, Suurhusen, and Pellworm.

Illustrated soft cover • 192 pages • 17 x 24 cm
Fully colored with many pictures • 19,95 €
RD 7/22 • ISBN 978-3-95889-417-4

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Cornelia Lohs

Wanderlust has accompanied the journalist and author Cornelia Lohs from a young age. Today, she spends the majority of the year traveling the world, particularly to Ireland, the Nordic countries, Canada, Latin America, and the US. Cornelia Lohs lives and writes in her hometown Heidelberg.

Discover the region's authentic cuisine with the 30 most authentic dishes

Series: Food Guide

30 typical dishes, a unique look into chefs' the pots, and tips for markets and restaurants for each region

- ★ The most typical dishes of the region in three categories: »Meat, Fish & more«, »Vegetables & more«, and »Pastries, Desserts & more«
- ★ Useful tips for weekly markets, authentic restaurants, ideas for cooking at home, accompanying drinks, and much more
- ★ Everything you need to know about the dishes' history, ingredients, and savoir vivre

Abstract

Vacation and indulgence simply go hand in hand! The new »Food Guide« series is the perfect and delicious addition to the classical travel guide. With appealing photographs and useful information on regional dishes, authentic restaurants, and local markets, the food guides offer a culinary holiday preparation as well as helpful orientation on site.

Written by knowledgeable culinary experts, the food guide series provides readers with tasteful texts, useful tips, and appetizing pictures. Lift the lids of the chefs' pots of your favorite cuisines!

Already available

Coming soon: Fall 2022

Layout impressions can be found on the following page

Paperback with printed cover flaps • 192 pages • 15 x 21 cm
With more than 100 pictures and an overview map • 14,95 €
RD 6/22 - 10/22

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Current editions available:

- Southern France (Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur)
- Mallorca
- Crete
- New York City

Entertaining guide series with the really important tips for the perfect travel preparation

Series: Travel Hacks

Humorous travel guide with helpful tips for every type of world traveler

- ★ Tailored to each target group, whether for young parents, sports fans or dog people
- ★ Written by experts: plenty of useful tips for individual travel planning and preparation
- ★ Structured along the chronology of a journey: from the decision to the arrival to discovering the destination

Abstract

The new cheerful travel guides are the ideal companions for your hand luggage or your back pocket. Tips and tricks perfectly tailored to the needs of the specific target group help to prepare for the next trip and to make the most of your precious vacation time.

With the help of multiple choice quizzes, bucket lists, and lots of colorful diagrams, the really important questions are answered in an entertaining way, such as: How ready for a vacation am I? Where can I meet likeminded people? What should I pack in my suitcase? Which destination is worthwhile for my next trip? And which souvenirs do I bring home for my friends?

Layout impressions
can be found on
the following page

Hardcover • 96 pages • 12 x 17 cm
Colored inner section and many illustrations • 9,95 €
RD 5/22

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Current editions available:

- Travel Hacks for New Parents
- Travel Hacks for Dog People
- Travel Hacks for the Climate-Conscious
- Travel Hacks for Runners
- Travel Hacks for Nudists

Explosive facts about your favorite travel destinations

Series: What you thought you NEVER wanted to know about ...

55 surprising insights into our favorite countries

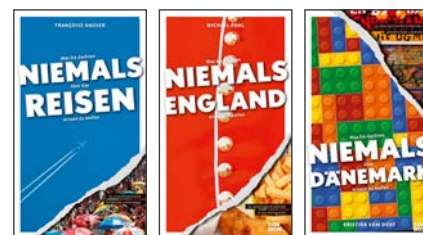

- ★ Revealing: Focus on surprising aspects of a country that you won't find in any travel handbook
- ★ Entertaining: Satirical, lovingly, and with a lot of knowledge and cultural understanding
- ★ Profound: 55 lesser-known topics from the midst of society are explored below the surface

Abstract

You thought you knew everything about traveling and about your favorite countries? Think again! The new series »What you thought you NEVER wanted to know about ...« uncovers hidden truths about the world's nations that no tour guide will tell you. Our expert authors share surprising and fun facts surrounding 55 lesser-known topics that allow a look behind the façade.

The series unveils cultural truths in interesting and entertaining ways, offering astonishing background knowledge and the perfect base for cultural small talk at home or while traveling. Take an exclusive look with us behind the scenes of the countries of this world!

Already available

Coming soon: September 2022

Layout impressions
can be found on
the following page

Paperback • 256 pages • 12 x 19 cm
Two-colored inner section • 9,95 €
RD 3/22 - 9/22

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Current editions available:

- Traveling
- England
- Denmark
- Finland
- Croatia
- Canada
- USA
- China
- Japan
- India

A peek inside »What you thought you NEVER wanted to know about DENMARK«

Did you know...

- ★ ... that the Finns actually like paying taxes?
- ★ ... that Croatians hate vegetables on their grills?
- ★ ... and that Danish new-born babies don't need a name for the first six months of their lives?

One of the most unusual travel atlases

Markus Lesweng

How to Kill Yourself Abroad

The atlas for the daring, the frivolous, and the world weary

- ★ Around the globe: 63 gorgeous travel destinations to die for
- ★ Entertaining and darkly funny: The extraordinary gift for travel junkies
- ★ Sarcastic and witty: For everyone who has always known 'home sweet home' to be true

Abstract

Travelers these days have high expectations. Authenticity and adventure over swimming pools and package tourism. But what about an excursion to the 'Valley of Death' in the idyllic Kronotzky Nature Reserve? An ascent of the Annapurna? Or a cruise to Namibia's Skeleton Coast?

This atlas will take you on a tour around the world, to the most dangerous places that humans and nature have created. Off the beaten path, you will encounter seas of pure acid, combative natives, pits of poisonous snakes, and many other hazards that may expand your horizons but decrease your life expectancy.

Layout impressions
can be found on
the following page

Premium paperback with cover flaps • 192 pages • 17 x 24 cm
More than 70 pictures, fully colored • 19,95 €
RD 3/19 • ISBN 978-3-95889-201-9

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Markus Lesweng

Markus Lesweng (* 1985) studied economics with the (only superficially) conflicting specializations of statistics and prostitution. After traveling through Australia, New Zealand, and Polynesia, he returned to the Northern Hemisphere and has worked ever since in Russia and Germany as an airport consultant.

Off the beaten path in one of the world's most dangerous countries

Anne Steinbach and Clemens Sehi Pakistan by Backpack

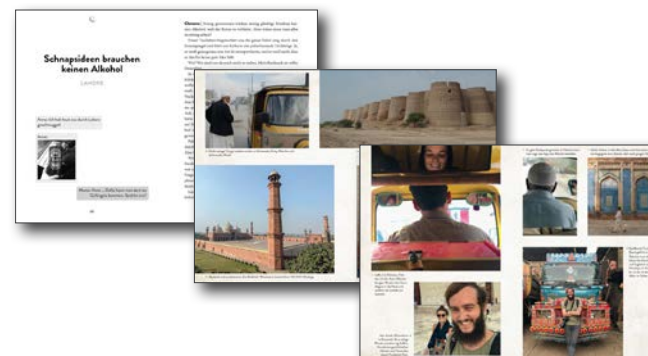

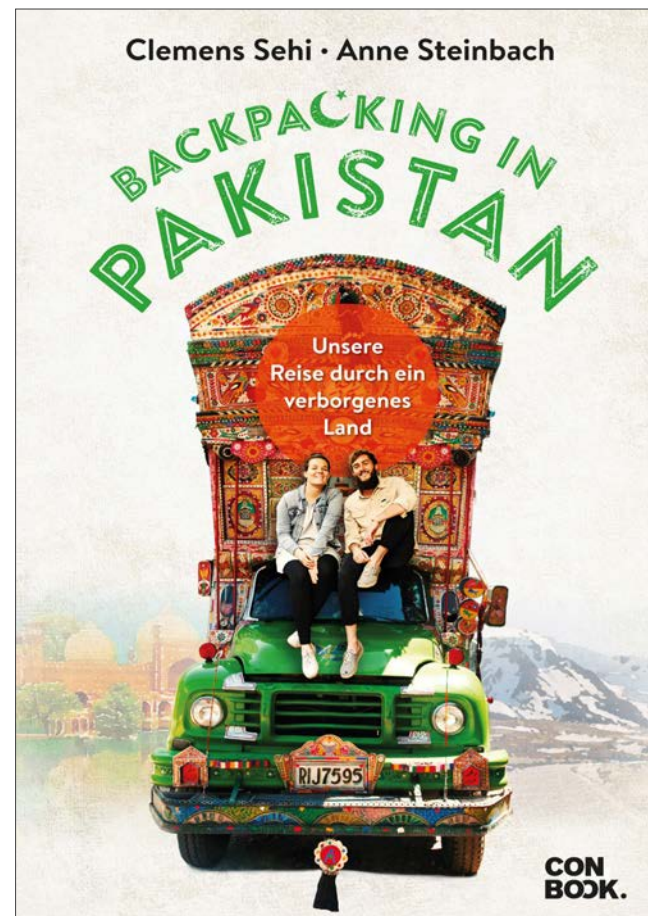

Our journey through a hidden land

- ★ Exceptional: The pair explores Pakistan, away from mass tourism
- ★ Couple power: Two perspectives, one captivating story
- ★ Thrilling adventures: Illegal alcohol, police custody, and VIP parties

Abstract

Anne and Clemens are backpacking through Taliban territory. Between Kalashnikovs, never-ending prayer chants and the hottest chili peppers in the world, the adventure in Pakistan quickly picks up speed for them. The pair gets stuck with illegal alcohol and ends up as VIP guests at a sprawling party at the Indian border.

They narrate their experiences in the strictly Muslim country from two different perspectives, male and female. Anne quickly gets used to the fact that she is banned from all group photos with other men. What's more, the surveillance by the secret service is a constant companion. And yet, the couple falls in love with this hidden nation that welcomes them with open arms.

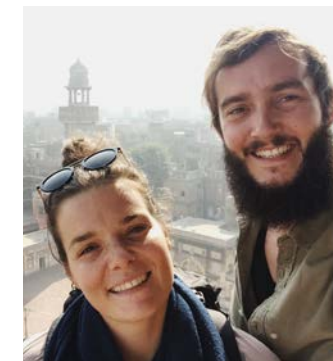

Premium paperback with cover flaps • 288 pages • 13,5 × 21 cm
With 16 pages of color pictures • 14,95 €
RD 3/20 • ISBN 978-3-95889-327-6

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Anne Steinbach and Clemens Sehi

Anne Steinbach is a freelance journalist and online editor. In 2017 she founded the travel blog 'travellersarchive.de' together with Clemens Sehi. Clemens is an award-winning creative director, copywriter, and travel journalist. The two travel bloggers and photographers live in Berlin and have a liking for misunderstood countries.

A young woman hitchhikes across the globe – alone

Nic Jordan aWay

How I had nothing left to lose and hitchhiked from London to Australia

- ★ Unparalleled: Nic hitchhiked through the coldest and most isolated places on earth
- ★ Reckless: She embarks on this risky adventure all by herself
- ★ Inspiring life lessons: Nic as a role model for thousands of young people online

Abstract

After a painful breakup, Nic decides to leave her dead-end everyday life behind and expose herself to absolute loneliness. And so she embarks on a radical journey: hitchhiking from London to Australia, through the coldest and most isolated places on earth. Along the way, she finds herself in precarious situations and is confronted with her biggest fears. But she also meets strangers who have so little and yet give so much.

Hauntingly and at the same time humorously, Nic tells the story of her life as a vagabond, of the great power of serendipity, and of her eventual insight: In order to really understand a journey, you have to return to the place where it all began ...

Premium paperback with cover flaps • 416 pages • 13,5 x 21 cm
With 16 pages of color pictures • 16,95 €
RD 9/20 • ISBN 978-3-95889-368-9

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Nic Jordan

Nic Jordan grew up as a child of Polish immigrants in a small council flat in Munich. At age 16, she was expelled from school. She then worked her way across Europe from job to job. In 2016, she set off to hitchhike to Australia. Thousands followed her journey on social media, and ten thousand people follow her now. Nic now lives in Byron Bay, studying environmental science and teaching yoga.

A gripping NGO report: Seven months on a crisis relief mission

Robert Kösch

A Hospital in the Congo

My attempt to make the world a little bit better during an aid mission and why it is harder than I thought

- ★ Impressive: 'Doctors Without Borders' travel report about a powerful aid mission
- ★ Highly topical: Robert's story takes place in the midst of the pandemic
- ★ Eye-opening: Shows the difficulty of making the world just a little bit better

Abstract

Robert is in a happy relationship, has a good job, and has just finished his Master's degree when a life-threatening paragliding accident at age 27 changes his life. After being saved by the doctors, he decides to make his dream come true sooner rather than later: to fight for a good cause and to make the world just a little better.

As an all-round manager he joins Doctors Without Borders to help build a hospital in the Congo. For one year, he is supposed to live in Baraka, a city near the deepest lake in Africa. But soon the security situation deteriorates, the borders are being closed, and the new Corona virus turns everything upside down ...

Premium paperback with cover flaps • 288 pages • 13,5 x 21 cm
With 16 pages of color pictures • 16,95 €
RD 9/21 • ISBN 978-3-95889-399-3

Publisher for
Travel Literature
CON
BOOK.

Robert Kösch

After his high school graduation, Robert Kösch (*1992) got to know the world as a flight courier. Upon completing his dual degree he worked in project management and simultaneously completed his Master's degree at Boston University. After a serious paragliding accident, he applied to Doctors Without Borders, married his longtime girlfriend, and left for the Congo in early 2020.

The most successful surf novel in recent years

Andreas Brendt Boarderlines

- ★ Gifted storyteller: Autobiographical search for meaning in the most amazing waves of the planet
- ★ Commercial success: Over 40,000 copies sold
- ★ Public favorite: #1 travelogue on Amazon Germany for months, 450+ reviews with Ø 4,5 *

Abstract

Andi is a dutiful economics student with a bright future ahead of him. Until he suddenly decides to raid his bank account and head off to Asia. In Bali he is infected with the surfing virus, and riding the waves becomes a life-determining passion that forces him to make a big decision: Does he fuel his internal fire or does he go back to his manager career?

The search for an answer lasts ten years and allows him to experience incredible adventures through distant lands and encounters with extraordinary people, shady types and dangerous gangsters. It also describes the constant battle with himself on the way to personal happiness.

Soft-cover with cover flaps • 416 pages • 12,5 x 18,7 cm
9,95 € • RD 3/15 • ISBN 978-3-943176-99-5

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Andreas Brendt

Andreas Brendt is a native of Cologne. Nearly twenty years ago, he was driven by wanderlust to discover his great passion: Surfing. Since then he has roamed the world, always on the search for thrilling encounters and, of course, the best waves. Today he works as a vocational teacher and is fascinated by Far Eastern philosophy and every day wisdom.

Extreme Mongolia: A young couple makes its way on foot through the solitude

Franziska Bär

To the Middle of Nowhere, Please

Walking through the Mongolian backcountry

- ★ “Captivating. Personal. Vivid.”
- ★ The couple discovers togetherness within the loneliness
- ★ Winner of the travel blog “The Travel Episodes”

Abstract

Franziska and Felix have a dream: To travel to the most remote places in the world. So they develop a plan to hike across the most thinly populated country on earth – Mongolia. They get dropped in the middle of nowhere and just start walking, equipped with a tent, astronaut food and a few ancient Russian military maps. Their goal: a remote mountain lake.

They fight their way through rapid glacial rivers and push through the pain of hiking up a mountain with extra baggage. Sometimes they get surprise visits from unknown men in their tent but then can also go for days without seeing another human being. Still, this loneliness produces magical encounters – not least of all between Franziska and Felix.

Premium paperback with cover flaps • 288 pages • 13,5 x 21 cm
With 16 pages of color pictures • 14,95 €
RD 4/19 • ISBN 978-3-95889-179-1

Publisher for
Travel Literature

CON
BOOK.

Franziska Bär

Franziska Consolati, née Bär (* 1993) is an environmentalist, traveler, and freelance editor. Her short story, 'Gekritzelt im Sand gegen die große Einsamkeit' (Doodling in the sand against the great loneliness), won the authors' competition of the travel blog 'The Travel Episodes'.

*Publisher for
Travel Literature*

CON
BOOK.

Contacts

Eva FROMM

Rights & Licenses

eva.fromm@conbook.de
+49 21 31 / 202 66 - 36
+49 151 / 42 09 72 97

E-Mail
Phone
Cell

Matthias WALTER

Publisher

matthias.walter@conbook.de
+49 21 31 / 202 66 - 39
+49 163 / 26 65 451

CONBOOK Publisher

Conbook Medien GmbH
Marienkirchplatz 7
41460 NEUSS
GERMANY

www.conbook-verlag.de
www.instagram.com/conbook\_verlag
www.facebook.com/conbook